OBJECTION TO APPARENT LIMITATION OF DR. JAMASBI'S ROLE AS PTP

Dear Ms. Goines:

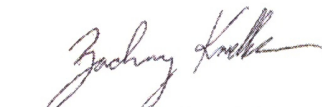

As you are likely aware, my office represents Jonathan Shockley with respect to his above-referenced workers' compensation matter. We are not in agreement with your classification of Dr. Jamasbi's role as the primary treating physician as to only be allowed to comment on medical treatment.

My understanding is that we agreed that he would not control indemnity through the date of the QME exam and until the QME affirms and/or rejects the opinions of Dr. O'Lang. However, Dr. Jamasbi is still able to (and is required to per Labor Code § 9785) to comment on indemnity.

Per our conversation at the deposition of Mr. Shockley on 10/10/2019, you will issue an updated letter to Dr. Jamasbi. You will also ensure that your client issues an authorization letter so my client may set his initial exam. He has not been able to set-up any appointments to date as Dr. Jamasbi has not received authorization.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Very truly yours,
